

NAHMA Affiliate Members

Welcome to NAHMA!

As an Affiliate member you are among committed individuals whose businesses provide goods and services to owners and managers of affordable housing, and individuals affiliated with nonprofit organizations which have an interest in the industry. Affiliate members do not actively own or manage affordable housing.

Affiliate Membership Offers You:

- Eligibility to co-chair and serve on committees that shape NAHMA and the affordable housing industry.
- A free subscription and reduced advertising rates to NAHMA's bi-monthly NAHMA News, the only industry newsletter expressly for affordable housing providers and stakeholders such as you. It is your link to up-to-date news about regulations, legislation and NAHMA initiatives affecting the rapidly changing affordable housing industry.
- Access to the NAHMA Web site's resources-rich Members Only area.
- NAHMA Analysis, regular in-depth analytical report on key, emerging issues in affordable housing.
- Networking opportunities at three NAHMA meetings that draw members and other stakeholders nationwide.
- An exciting opportunity for nonprofit members to develop a cooperative alliance with NAHMA.
- NAHMA's Annual Membership and Congressional directories, which are handy references.
- Professional development opportunities through nationally-recognized accreditation programs, National Affordable Housing Professional (NAHP), Certified Professional of Occupancy (CPO), Fair Housing Compliance (FHC) and Housing Credit Certified Professional (HCCP).
- Access to NAHMA Listserves for electronic networking with NAHMA colleagues, 24/7.

Important information about dues:

NAHMA membership dues are payable each January. Prospective members joining after July 1 are invited to inquire about pro-rated dues.

Annual Membership:

NAHMA Member: $750
