

“NAHMA and the AHMAs are the best resources available for education, for networking, and for sharing and hearing ideas. They also provide a voice for advocacy at the regional and national levels.”

-Sam Ausmus, President, IPM-Software

“We can all be proud of NAHMA staff, and how they represent us on Capitol Hill and within the affordable housing community.”

-Wayne Fox, President, Realty Management Associates, Inc.

“One of the joys of my job is coming three times a year to the NAHMA conferences and learning about the industry. It’s motivating to be around them.”

- Mark Livanec, Director of Affordable Housing Sales, Yardi Systems

“NAHMA staff has been tremendous. I’ll call and ask, ‘What is this email really all about?’ and they’re very patient and helpful. I’m very impressed with them. They share ideas and strategies and know what really works when reaching out to people.”

-Maggie Meikle, Executive Director, AHMA NW/Oregon Chapter

“NAHMA and LAHMA have provided a tremendous educational backdrop against which we’ve been able to be successful. Without them, I don’t think I could be effective day in and day out. NAHMA gives us the broad look, and LAHMA the in-state look. Without them, I don’t think anybody in this business could be successful.”

-Ann Roeling, Vice President, Orenid, Inc.

“We’re glad to have NAHMA be the organization that works on policy.”

-Roy Cozart, Executive Director, Southwest AHMA

“NAHMA has exposed me to the greater public policy issues and opened my eyes a lot wider about the national issues affecting real estate and property management.”

-Scott Reithel, Senior Vice President, Metropolitan Associates
