NAHMA Names Stephanie Vázquez Collazo Poster Contest Winner

Alexandria, Va., July 10, 2015 — Stephanie Vázquez Collazo, a 12th-grader from Manatí, Puerto Rico, has been named the grand prizewinner in the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA)'s 29th annual AHMA Drug-Free Kids poster and art contest. Her artwork will appear on the cover of NAHMA's 2016 calendar. Stephanie, 18, also receives an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C., for NAHMA's Regulatory Issues fall meeting in October, as well as a scholarship of $2,500 from the NAHMA Educational Foundation.

The poster contest is open to children and elderly/disabled residents 55 years or older who live in a community of a NAHMA or a local Affordable Housing Management Association (AHMA) member company; and residents with special needs who live in a permanent supportive housing community or Section 811 community of a NAHMA or a local AHMA member company. This year's contest celebrated community spirit with its theme and subtheme, Our Hands Are United: Reach Out and Be a Good Neighbor.

Nearly 5,000 eligible children, elderly/disabled and residents with special needs participated in the nationwide contest. Each child winner of the NAHMA contest receives a $1,000 educational scholarship from the NAHMA Educational Foundation. A $1,000 cash award will be made in the name of the elderly/disabled and special needs winners to their community for use in purchasing or funding a project from which all of the community's residents will benefit. All winners are also featured in the 2016 calendar.

Additionally, participants in the annual art contests held by the local AHMAs are eligible to be selected as Regional AHMA Art Contest Honorable Mentions. Those selected for this distinction will have their artwork featured in a special section of the NAHMA 2016 Drug-Free Kids calendar and receive a $100 check. These participants are in addition to those that were selected as national winners.

The original winning artwork will be auctioned at the fall meeting, Oct. 25-27, with the proceeds supporting the foundation's scholarship program. Through this program, the NAHMA Educational Foundation awards scholarships and encourages children, teens and adults to set goals, emulate good role models, and live a drug-free lifestyle.

For the contest, the artwork is divided into seven categories with winners selected from each of the following: kindergarten-first grade, second-third grades, fourth-sixth grades, seventh-ninth grades, 10th-12th grades, seniors, and residents with special needs. Only students are eligible for the grand prize. Calendars may be ordered beginning in September by visiting NAHMA's website, www.nahma.org. The cost is $5.50, which is a Department of Housing and Urban Development and U.S. Department of Agriculture allowable expense.

The following lists this year's national program winners, with their ages, grade/category, community where they live, management company, and name of the AHMA that submitted their artwork:
