

NATIONAL AFFORDABLE HOUSING MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

NAHMANews™

PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Plan to Attend NAHMA & NAA Events in Vegas

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 9, 2015 – Preregistering for the 2015 National Apartment Association (NAA) Education Conference & Exposition can save National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) members almost half on their NAA full-conference admission versus on-site registration. The NAA early bird registration expires in early February. NAHMA members can receive an additional $200 discount when they use the promo code NAHMA15. Registration for NAHMA's Public Policy Issues Forum, held in conjunction with the NAA annual conference, will open in April. Both educational opportunities take place at the Mandalay Bay Resort & Convention Center, Las Vegas.

Begin the conference experience by attending NAHMA's summer meeting, Wednesday, June 24. The daylong event includes a keynote luncheon, Vanguard Awards ceremony, NAHMA Educational Foundation Dinner and Fundraiser, and NAHMA Party, both at the Palms Casino and Resort. The featured Federal Affordable Multifamily Housing Policies Issues forum will be presented by David Smith, founder and chairman, Recap Real Estate Advisors. The NAHMA summer meeting requires separate registration from the NAA event. Stay tuned to www.nahma.org/meetings for more information as it becomes available.

Then plan on staying for the NAA conference, June 25-27. To get the most savings from your NAA preregistration, sign up by Feb. 2. Rates will increase incrementally as the event approaches. Additionally, you can reserve your room when you register for the conference online.

NAA full-conference attendees receive access to all the educational sessions, the expo floor, special networking events, as well as receive tickets for prizes giveaways and conference swag. Featured NAHMA sessions during the NAA conference cover the topics of disparate impact, service-enriched housing for seniors, marketing affordable housing, and federal legislation and regulatory issues impacting affordable multifamily housing. Other featured speakers at the NAA event include Robin Chase, founder and former CEO, Zipcar, Buzcar and GoLoco; Richard Karlgaard, bestselling author and publisher of Forbes Magazine; Luke Williams, author; Jim Knight, former director of training, Hard Rock Café; and Olivia Fox Cabane, charisma and leadership expert. For more NAA conference details, visit <http://educonf.naahq.org/attend/register/>.

NAHMA is the leading voice for affordable housing management, advocating on behalf of multifamily property managers and owners whose mission is to provide quality affordable housing. NAHMA supports legislative and regulatory policy that promotes the development and preservation of decent and safe affordable housing, is a vital resource for technical education and information and fosters strategic relations between government and industry. Founded in 1990, NAHMA's membership today includes the industry's most distinguished multifamily owners and management companies. Visit www.nahma.org for more information.

Media Contact

Jennifer Jones, Manager of Communications and Public Relations
National Affordable Housing Management Association
703-683-8630, ext. 100
jjones@nahma.org

###