PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clock Is Ticking to Enter NAHMA's Vanguard Awards

Alexandria, Va., March 23, 2015 — The deadline for the National Affordable Housing Management Association's (NAHMA) 2015 Vanguard Award is only two weeks away. Now is the time to gather the required materials to put together a thorough and thoughtful application. The deadline for submissions is April 3. To download the application, visit www.nahma.org/awards-contests.

The Vanguard Award celebrates success in the multifamily affordable housing industry by recognizing and benchmarking newly developed or significantly rehabbed affordable multifamily housing communities that showcase high-quality design and resourceful financing. Affordable multifamily housing communities that are less than 3 years old, as of April 3, 2015, may apply—based on date of completion of new construction or completion of major rehab. Affordable is defined as a property participating in a government funded, insured or otherwise sponsored program that results in rents that are below market-rate housing.

The award complements NAHMA's Communities of Quality® (COQ) National Recognition Program through which multifamily properties are certified as having achieved a high standard of excellence in the way they are managed, the services they provide residents, the experience and training of personnel and other criteria. As the properties mature, they will become eligible—and will be encouraged—to enter NAHMA's COQ National Recognition Program.

There are four Vanguard Award categories: New Construction, Major Rehabilitation of an Existing Rental Housing Community, Major Rehabilitation of a Nonhousing Structure into Affordable Rental Housing, and Major Rehabilitation of a Historic Structure into Affordable Rental Housing. Please note: A management company may submit only one entry for each category.

Applications should be submitted to the National Affordable Housing Management Association by April 3. Please email your PDF application to brenda.moser@nahma.org or mail a CD containing your PDF application to NAHMA Vanguard Award, 400 N. Columbus St., Suite 203, Alexandria, VA 22314. To download the application, visit www.nahma.org/awards-contests. Applications must be submitted in PDF format.

NAHMA will convene a distinguished panel of multifamily affordable housing practitioners in early April to conduct the judging process. Winners of the Vanguard Award will be recognized at a ceremony during the NAHMA Public Policy Issues Forum in June in Las Vegas.

This year's Vanguard Award program is sponsored by the NAHMA-endorsed Multifamily Affordable Housing Insurance Program (MAHIP), provided by Wells Fargo Insurance Services. For details on the national resources, depth-of-industry understanding and market strength of the MAHIP program, visit

<https://wfs.wellsfargo.com/industries/habitationalrisk/Pages/mahip.aspx>. “Wells Fargo is a proud sponsor of the Vanguard Award,” commented Megan Davidson, ARM, CRIS, vice president of Wells Fargo Insurance Services USA Inc. “We appreciate and support what you do to make communities better and safer places to live and thrive. Wells Fargo believes and supports affordable housing from a lending and investment standpoint, as one of the largest providers of insurance to affordable housing providers, and as volunteers and supporters of organizations such as Habitat for Humanity. Our goal is to support your success by financially protecting what you value most, and fulfilling all your commercial insurance needs,” she said.
