PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

Encourage Potential Members to Attend NAHMA's Fall Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 27, 2015 — Know someone thinking about joining the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA)? The organization's annual October meeting is the best way to see what the association is all about. The three-day event includes educational panels, committee meetings, networking opportunities, NAHMA Educational Foundation poster auction and keynote luncheon. Prospective members attend for free while current members who register before Sept. 25 save $50.

Even though prospective members can attend at no charge, preregistration is required. This offer is limited to one staff member per company and may only be used once per person.

The Regulatory Issues fall meeting, Oct. 25-27, takes place at the Fairmont Washington, D.C., Georgetown, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, DC 20037. The NAHMA room block single/double rate is $305. The discounted rooms are booked on a first-come, first-served basis and expire on or before Sept. 25 depending on availability. Reserve your room online today, <https://resweb.passkey.com/go/nahmafall2015>.

Event registration includes admission to the keynote luncheon, as well as the committee meetings and educational panels, which feature representatives from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, U.S. Department of Agricultural Rural Development, IRS and other industry experts. Author and video producer Kevin Coupe serves as the keynote speaker. To see the full preliminary agenda, visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website.

Let us know what questions you would like to ask the panelists using #nahma15 on social media.

For more information regarding the meeting, contact Brenda Moser, director of meetings and membership, by calling 703-683-8630, ext. 112 or emailing brenda.moser@nahma.org.

NAHMA is the leading voice for affordable housing management, advocating on behalf of multifamily property managers and owners whose mission is to provide quality affordable housing. NAHMA supports legislative and regulatory policy that promotes the development and preservation of decent and safe affordable housing, is a vital resource for technical education and information and fosters strategic relations between government and industry. Founded in 1990, NAHMA's membership today includes the industry's most distinguished multifamily owners and management companies. Visit www.nahma.org for more information.
