Hotel Extends Room Block for NAHMA Fall Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 30, 2015 — There are a limited number of discounted hotel rooms still available for the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) fall meeting. The rooms are booked on a first-come, first-served basis depending on remaining availability. Reserve your room today by calling 800-441-1414 and be sure to ask for the NAHMA Fall Meeting 2015.

The Regulatory Issues fall meeting, Oct. 25-27, takes place at the Fairmont Washington, D.C., 2401 M St. NW, Washington, DC 20037. The three-day event includes educational panels, committee meetings, networking opportunities, NAHMA Educational Foundation poster auction and keynote luncheon. The NAHMA room block single/double rate is $305 while the accommodations last. Discounted rooms for Oct. 24 are no longer available.

Event registration includes admission to the keynote luncheon with author Kevin Coupe, sessions with Department of Housing and Urban Development and other government officials, and a special presentation and problem-solving session featuring Manikandan KP, a consultant for Housing for All at Ashoka. Also included are committee meetings and educational panels led by industry experts. To see the full preliminary agenda, visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website.

What are you most looking forward to during your visit to the district? Let us know using #nahma15 on Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.

For more information regarding the meeting, contact Brenda Moser, director of meetings and membership, by calling 703-683-8630, ext. 112 or emailing brenda.moser@nahma.org.

NAHMA is the leading voice for affordable housing management, advocating on behalf of multifamily property managers and owners whose mission is to provide quality affordable housing. NAHMA supports legislative and regulatory policy that promotes the development and preservation of decent and safe affordable housing, is a vital resource for technical education and information and fosters strategic relations between government and industry. Founded in 1990, NAHMA's membership today includes the industry's most distinguished multifamily owners and management companies. Visit www.nahma.org for more information.
