Get a Jump on the New Year with the 2016 NAHMA Drug-Free Kids Calendar

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 2, 2015 — There are just 90 days left in 2015. Are you ready for the new year? Purchase the 2016 National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) Drug-Free Kids Calendar and you will be all set. For an added incentive, orders received by Nov. 13 double as entries in the Lucky Draw for free prizes. The one-of-a-kind calendars can be purchased by visiting the Online Store at www.nahma.org. The 2015 edition was so popular, it sold out. The cost is $5.50 per calendar, which is a Department of Housing and Urban Development and U.S. Department of Agriculture allowable project expense.

The prize drawing takes place Dec. 18. Winners are selected at random and will be awarded one of the following:

- Three people will win free NAHMA meeting registrations (Value: $375-$600 each).
- Five people will earn a copy of the newly updated A Practical Guide to Tax Credit Management (Value: $25 each).
- Five people will receive a copy of Understanding Insurance and Risk Management (Value: $35 each).
- Five people will get a $100 American Express gift card.

The calendars feature outstanding original artwork by children, seniors and adults with special needs living in affordable multifamily housing. This year's contest celebrated community spirit with its theme and subtheme, Our Hands Are United: Reach Out and Be a Good Neighbor.

Stephanie Vázquez Collazo, a 12th-grader from Manatí, Puerto Rico, has been named the grand prizewinner in the 29th annual poster and art contest. Her artwork appears on the cover of NAHMA's 2016 calendar. Stephanie, 18, also receives an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C., for NAHMA's Regulatory Issues fall meeting in October, as well as a scholarship of $2,500 from the NAHMA Educational Foundation. To see the complete list of winners, visit <http://www.nahma.org/awards-contests/calendar-contest/>.

Each child winner of the NAHMA contest receives a $1,000 educational scholarship from the foundation. A $1,000 cash award is made in the name of the adult winners to their community for use in purchasing or funding a project from which all of the community's residents will benefit. All winners are also featured in the 2016 calendar.

Additionally, participants in the annual art contests held by the local Affordable Housing Management Associations (AHMAs) are eligible to be selected as Regional AHMA Art Contest Honorable Mentions. Those selected for this distinction are featured in a special section of the NAHMA 2016 Drug-Free Kids calendar and receive a $100 scholarship check.

For the contest, the artwork is divided into six categories with winners selected from each of the following: kindergarten-first grade, second-third grades, fourth-sixth grades, seventh-ninth grades, 10th-12th grades, and seniors and residents with special needs. Only students are eligible for the grand prize.

Calendars can be purchased through the Online Store at www.nahma.org. Or to download a mail-in order form visit, http://www.nahma.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/05/2016-ORDERFORM_FINAL.pdf.
