Schedule a Visit to the Hill While at NAHMA's Winter Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 5, 2016 — While in Washington, D.C., for the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA)'s Federal Affairs Issues winter meeting, March 6-8, make sure your voice gets heard on affordable housing issues important to you by scheduling visits with your local senator or representative and their staff; and let NAHMA make sure your name gets in the appointment book.

Contact Scott McMillen, government affairs manager, either by calling 703-504-9616 or emailing scott.mcmillen@nahma.org, by Feb. 22 for assistance scheduling your meetings, which should be arranged in advance. NAHMA suggests making your appointments for the afternoon of the last day of the meeting, March 8.

If you manage or own properties in several locations, and are unsure of all of the representatives or senators who represent those districts, you can use NAHMA Maps to find your elected officials. NAHMA will be providing members with concise talking points and one-page legislative overviews to prepare for and facilitate the Hill meetings.

The three-day event is focused on federal policy issues and features a number of educational panels specifically geared toward the affordable housing industry that are led by the people who are experts in their fields. It also includes networking opportunities, industry awards, Communities of Quality (COQ) awards luncheon and keynote speaker Danny Vargas, corporate chief executive officer, political activist and candidate for the Virginia legislature. The event concludes with prearranged Capitol Hill meetings with congressional representatives and their staff.

The winter meeting takes place at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, DC. The NAHMA room block single/double rate is $315. The discounted rooms are booked on a first-come, first-served basis and expire on or before Feb. 12, depending on availability. Reserve your room online today, <https://aws.passkey.com/event/12000031/owner/56417/home>.
