PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

Be Heard at NAHMA's Winter Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 10, 2016 — The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA)'s Federal Affairs Issues winter meeting, March 6-8, is your chance to ask the experts in the affordable housing field questions about the issues most important to your communities. And the best way to ensure you get the answers you need is by providing them in advance.

NAHMA staff is gathering any questions you may have for the speakers from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Rural Housing Service and the other invited panelists. During each committee forum, the moderator will present your questions to the appropriate panelists to answer. Members will also be able to participate in an audience question and answer session as time permits following each panel. A preliminary list of speakers is available on the Meetings webpage at www.nahma.org.

To guarantee that the panelists are prepared to answer your moderator questions, submit questions to NAHMA by Friday, Feb. 12, by contacting Scott McMillen, government affairs manager, either by calling 703-504-9616 or emailing scott.mcmillen@nahma.org.

The three-day event is focused on federal policy issues and features a number of educational panels specifically geared toward the affordable housing industry that are led by the people who are experts in their fields. It also includes networking opportunities, industry awards, Communities of Quality (COQ) awards luncheon and keynote speaker Danny Vargas, corporate chief executive officer, political activist and candidate for the Virginia legislature. The event concludes with prearranged Capitol Hill meetings with congressional representatives and their staff. The winter meeting takes place at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, DC.

Event registration includes admission to the COQ awards luncheon, Monday, March 7. To see the full preliminary agenda, visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website. The event is made possible by the meeting's Platinum sponsors, Yardi Systems, HD Supply Multifamily Solutions and Wells Fargo Insurance Services.

For more information regarding the meeting, contact Brenda Moser, director of meetings and membership, by calling 703-683-8630, ext. 112 or emailing brenda.moser@nahma.org.
