To enter the 2016 COQ Awards competition, a property must be a COQ National Recognition program member with a minimum score of 325 points on its National Recognition application. For properties that have not yet achieved nationally recognized COQ status, the deadline for submitting an application to a local Affordable Housing Management Association (AHMA) for consideration in the national program is Sept. 9.

The AHMAs will be honoring their local NAHMA Communities of Quality program participants. Please check with your local AHMA for its program details. A directory of the AHMAs is available on the NAHMA website, at <http://www.nahma.org/membership/ahma-directory>.

"NAHMA believes it is essential that outstanding affordable properties—and the individuals who establish them—be publicly recognized for providing quality housing that offers a safe, healthy environment," Ken Pagano, CPM, SHCM, NAHP-e, president of NAHMA, said. "All of our properties are more than bricks and mortar. They are communities supplying essential programs and services for their residents. These awards bring valuable well-deserved attention to the important work we are all doing."

This year's NAHMA COQ Awards program is jointly sponsored by HD Supply Multifamily Solutions, a leading supplier of maintenance and renovation products to the multihousing industry, and Navigate Affordable Housing Partners, a leading provider of consulting and development services to public housing authorities and the HUD Section 8 Project-based contract administrator (PBCA) for Alabama, Mississippi, Virginia and Connecticut.
