PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

Hear from a Political Insider at NAHMA's Fall Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 9, 2016 — Gain political insight, especially during this election year, from an insider at the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) annual fall meeting. Keynote speaker, former Congressman Martin Frost (D-TX), has 26 years of legislative experience, is a keen observer of national politics and policy and is regarded as a pre-eminent political analyst among his peers. In addition to Frost's analysis, the October meeting is packed with everything you need to know about what is trending in the affordable housing industry. Preregister before Sept. 30 and save $50. The three-day event includes educational panels, committee meetings, networking opportunities, the NAHMA Educational Foundation poster auction, and keynote luncheon.

Frost held numerous leadership positions in his party and is also considered to be one of its top strategists, an innovative lawmaker who is able to craft bipartisan legislation. He is also the co-author, with Congressman Tom Davis (R-VA) of The PARTISAN DIVIDE: Congress in Crisis, which looks at how to solve the gridlock in Washington. He makes frequent appearances on television news, offering political analysis on MSNBC's The Daily Rundown, CNN's The Situation Room, and many other programs. In his presentation, Frost addresses our current political climate, what to expect from Congress after the election and what it takes to achieve bipartisan cooperation.

The Regulatory Issues fall meeting, Oct. 23-25, takes place at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, DC. The NAHMA room block single/double rate is $315. The discounted rooms are booked on a first-come, first-served basis and expire on or before Sept. 30 depending on availability. Reserve your room online today, <https://aws.passkey.com/event/12050518/owner/56417/home>.

The annual meeting features a number of educational panels specifically geared toward the affordable housing industry and are led by the people who are experts in their fields. Event registration includes admission to the keynote luncheon as well as the NAHMA Educational Foundation reception and poster auction, both on Monday, Oct. 24. The auction, which benefits the foundation's scholarship program, features the artwork that was chosen to appear in the 2017 NAHMA Drug-Free Kids calendar.
