Ready for the New Year? The NAHMA Drug-Free Kids Calendar Can Help

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 6, 2017 — There are only two months left in 2017. Are you ready for the new year? Purchase a 2018 National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) Drug-Free Kids Calendar and you will be all set. Order now by visiting the Online Store at www.nahma.org. A downloadable order form is also available on the calendar contest webpage. The cost is $5.50 per calendar, which is a Department of Housing and Urban Development and U.S. Department of Agriculture allowable project expense. The calendars make great gifts for colleagues and residents. They have sold out the last three years, so get yours before they are all gone.

Orders received by Nov. 10 double as entries in the Lucky Draw for free prizes. The prize drawing takes place Dec. 15. Winners are selected at random and will be awarded one of the following:

- Three people will win free NAHMA meeting registrations (Value: $386-$610 each).
- Five people will earn a copy of A Practical Guide to Tax Credit Management (Value: $30 each).
- Five people will receive a copy of Understanding Insurance and Risk Management (Value: $35 each).
- Five people will get a $100 American Express gift card.

The calendars feature outstanding original artwork by children, seniors and adults with special needs living in affordable multifamily housing. The underlying message for the annual calendar contest is always a drug-free theme but the association wanted to open the door for more avenues of expression, so a subtheme is incorporated into the poster contest. The subtheme this year is Learning Will Get Me Where I'm Going: Reaching for Knowledge.

Worla Dra-Zonyrah, a sixth-grader from Worcester, Mass., was selected the grand prizewinner in the annual AHMA Drug-Free Kids poster and art contest. His artwork appears on the cover of NAHMA's 2018 calendar. Worla, 12, also received an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C., for NAHMA's State of Affordable Housing in America fall meeting in October, as well as a scholarship of $2,500 from the NAHMA Educational Foundation.

Nearly 5,000 eligible children, senior and residents with special needs participated in the nationwide contest. Each winner of the NAHMA contest receives a $1,000 educational scholarship from the NAHMA Educational Foundation. All winners are also featured in the 2018 calendar.

Additionally, participants in the annual art contests held by the local Affordable Housing Management Associations (AHMAs) are eligible to be selected as Regional AHMA Art Contest Honorable Mentions. Those selected for this distinction are featured in a special section of the 2018 NAHMA Drug-Free Kids Calendar and receive a $100 educational scholarship.

For the contest, the artwork is divided into categories with winners selected from each of the following: kindergarten-first grade, second-third grades, fourth-sixth grades, seventh-ninth grades, 10th-12th grades, and seniors and residents with special needs. Only students are eligible for the grand prize.

The complete list of winners and a sneak preview of their artwork can be found on the Current Winners webpage under the Awards & Contests tab.
