PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

NAHMA Releases 2017 Trends Report

Alexandria, Va., Dec. 14, 2017 — The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) releases its NAHMA Leaders Talk Trends highlighting members' insight and expertise on emerging trends for the upcoming new year in the affordable housing industry. They shared their knowledge on the topics of sustainability and green management, managing a mixed-finance property and what they see as the biggest trends for 2018. Read the trends report on NAHMA's website.

Member leaders were asked and provided answers to the following questions.

- What are the emerging trends in sustainability and green management?
- What are the secrets to success in managing a mixed-finance property?
- Look into your crystal ball, what will be the biggest trend in the affordable housing industry for 2018?

The responses were varied and perceptive, but show that our members have their pulse on the affordable housing industry and the gained knowledge to stay ahead of the curve, which truly sets them apart as leaders in their field.

"We are excited to share the expertise and opinions of our talented members," Kris Cook, CAE, NAHMA executive director, said. "We look forward to continuing to share our industry leaders' know-how in matters that are important to our members."

The report was sponsored by The Inspection Group.
