Schedule a Hill Visit While Attending the NAHMA March Meeting

At the same time, don't forget to preregister for the meeting online and give yourself more time to sleep in on Sunday, the first day of the event. The last day to receive the meeting registration discount is this Friday, Feb. 9.

The meeting, focused on federal policy issues, takes place at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, D.C., March 4-6. The NAHMA room block single/double rate is $325. The discounted rooms are booked on a first-come, first-served basis and expire on or before Friday, Feb. 9, depending on availability. The annual three-day conference features a number of educational panels specifically geared toward the affordable housing industry that are led by the people who are experts in their fields. New this year is the NAHMA Members Talk Trends and Best Practices panel, Sunday, March 4, featuring three half-hour sessions focused on key topics presented in an interactive format.

Senior leadership from the Department of Housing and Urban Development's Office of Multifamily Housing and the Real Estate Assessment Center, the Department of Agriculture's Rural Housing Service, the Housing Partnership Network, Enterprise Community Partners and the Caleb Group have already been confirmed as speakers.

The meeting features educational panels, networking opportunities, NAHMA committee meetings, the Industry Awards ceremony and the Communities of Quality (COQ) Awards luncheon. It concludes with prearranged Capitol Hill meetings with congressional representatives and their staff.
