NAHMA Releases 2017 Annual Report

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 26, 2018 — The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) releases its annual report highlighting the organization’s accomplishments in 2017. Additionally, the report provides a look at what was new in 2017. Read the full report on NAHMA’s website under the News & Analysis tab in the Members Only section, which requires a membership login.

The report focuses on four keys areas: General Overview, which provides information such as progress on the five-year strategic plan, membership statistics and communication activities; Government Affairs/Advocacy, which summarizes the government relations accomplishments; and Education/Training/Credentialing, which includes data on courses and certifications.

“We are proud of our accomplishments over the past year and remain focused on our future goals,” Kris Cook, CAE, NAHMA executive director, said. “NAHMA has continually proven itself to be an industry leader by promoting development and preservation of quality affordable multifamily housing by advancing legislative and regulatory policy and preparing affordable housing professionals to succeed in evolving economic and political environments.”

NAHMA is the leading voice for affordable housing management, advocating on behalf of multifamily property managers and owners whose mission is to provide quality affordable housing. NAHMA supports legislative and regulatory policy that promotes the development and preservation of decent and safe affordable housing, is a vital resource for technical education and information and fosters strategic relations between government and industry. NAHMA’s membership represents 75 percent of the affordable housing industry, and includes its most distinguished multifamily owners and management companies.
