

Why Participate?

Educate your lawmakers on the importance of affordable housing.

This is a critical time to advocate for our industry: With many new lawmakers sworn into Congress this year and ongoing funding debates shutting down affordable housing operations at HUD and USDA, your legislators need to hear from property management professionals like you about why affordable housing matters.

Head to the Hill in March to tell lawmakers why full funding for affordable housing programs is critical for industry and community.

NAHMATM
ADVOCACY CHALLENGE

Join the NAHMA March Meeting Hill Visit Challenge to advocate for affordable housing funding in Congress.

#ScoreMoreHousing
#NAHMA19

March Meeting Hill Visit Challenge

Meet with lawmakers or their staff on Capitol Hill

- Head to the Hill on the Tuesday afternoon following the NAHMA March Meeting
- NAHMA will provide talking points to discuss the importance of full funding for affordable housing
- Reach out to jbilowich@NAHMA.org by February 8 for assistance scheduling meetings on the Hill
- Earn 10 points per meeting

Take pictures during your Hill Visits to earn points

- Send photos to jbilowich@nahma.org to get credit

Post on social media and bring along a "Newbie"

- Social media posts should include Challenge hashtags
- Tag your legislators and your AHMAs!
- Social media posts earn 10 extra points per meeting
- Bring a Hill Visit "Newbie" along to earn 10 extra points per meeting

