Reach 15,000 affordable housing leaders – CEOs, presidents, executive directors, partners, executive and senior vice presidents, vice presidents, board members, program directors and managers – with NAHMA’s integrated advertising programs.
Meeting the Need for
Quality Affordable Housing for All

The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) is the voice of the affordable housing management industry. Members rely on NAHMA for representation in Washington, D.C., invaluable professional education, information, networking, and opportunities for one-on-one dialogue with the federal and state agencies that impact the industry.

Recently, NAHMA’s advocacy work has been directly related to the following legislative and regulatory activities:

- Legislation to preserve and invest in multifamily affordable housing
- Legislation to expand and reform LIHTC
- Funding for HUD and RHS affordable housing programs
- Funding for supportive services for residents in affordable housing programs
- Reducing federal regulatory burden
- Modernization of federal IT platforms
