Alexandria, Va., Jan. 3, 2020 — Online registration for the 2020 National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing winter conference is now open. Register today and save $50. The three-day event features educational panels, networking opportunities, Industry Awards evening reception and the Communities of Quality (COQ) Awards luncheon. The event concludes with prearranged Capitol Hill meetings with congressional representatives and their staff.

With a focus on the top issues facing affordable housing, the winter meeting takes place at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, D.C., March 8-10. The NAHMA room block single/double rate is $335. The discounted rooms are booked on a first-come, first-served basis and expire on or before Feb. 14, depending on availability. Reserve your room online today, <https://book.passkey.com/event/49745200/owner/56417/home>.

The annual meeting features a number of educational panels specifically geared toward the affordable housing industry that are led by people who are experts in their fields. Invited guests include representatives from the departments of Housing and Urban Development and Agriculture, and more. Event registration includes admission to all of the sessions, as well as the COQ Awards luncheon and Industry Awards ceremony, both of which take place Monday, March 9. Look for some new offerings and fun activities, as well. To see the full preliminary agenda, visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website. The NAHMA meeting is made possible by Platinum sponsors, Buyers Access, HD Supply Multifamily Solutions, USI Insurance Services and Yardi Systems.
