PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

Registration for NAHMA's Online Meeting Closes Thursday

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 19, 2020 — You only have days left to register for the 2020 National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing virtual fall conference. Register today for one low price. Registration closes Thursday, Oct. 22. The multiday event, Oct. 26-30, will focus on virtual panels concentrating on the top issues facing affordable housing as well as educational sessions on pandemic- and diversity, equity and inclusion-related topics. The virtual event is being held in place of the in-person event held each October in Washington, D.C.

The NAHMA Educational Foundation annual fundraising gala has moved online as well. The 2020 Inspiration Award recipients, Carole Glodney and Karen Steinbaum, will be honored during the foundation's Virtual Inspire Gala, Oct. 26, at 6 p.m. EST. The benefit serves as the primary public annual fundraising event for the NAHMA Educational Foundation's scholarship fund. While the event is virtual this year, it will still be packed with exciting guest speakers, silent auction items, a trivia game and a live auction component. The foundation will also be recognizing the grand prizewinner from the annual AHMA Drug-Free Kids poster and art contest, which appears as the cover of the 2021 NAHMA Drug-Free Calendar. The virtual gala is free, but registration is required. To register, visit nahmaedu.givesmart.com or contact Stefanie Lee at slee@cahec.com. The NAHMA Educational Foundation gala requires a separate registration and is not included as part of the NAHMA meeting registration.

The annual NAHMA meeting features several educational panels specifically geared toward the affordable housing industry that are led by people who are experts in their fields. Among the speakers confirmed to date are Toby Halliday, director of the Office of Asset Management and Portfolio Oversight for the Department of Housing and Urban Development; David A. Vargas, MSA, CPA, deputy assistant secretary, Real Estate Assessment Center; Dan Williams, program manager, NSPIRE; Nancie-Ann Bodell, assistant deputy administrator, Multifamily Housing Programs, Rural Development, Department of Agriculture, and other senior staff from Rural Development; Emily Cadik, executive director, The Affordable Housing Tax Credit Coalition; Peter J. Lawrence, director, Public Policy and Government Relations, Novogradac Consulting LLP; Dena Calo, Esq., partner, Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr; and Brenda Harrington, PCC, certified executive coach, former property management executive and founder of Adaptive Leadership Strategies. Panels featuring government officials and other special guests are not open to the media and may not be recorded.

For a full list of speakers and their biographies, an at-a-glance preliminary agenda, and a more descriptive agenda with speakers listed, visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website. The NAHMA meeting is made possible by Platinum sponsors, Buyers Access, HD Supply Multifamily Solutions, USI Insurance Services and Yardi Systems, and Bronze sponsor Dauby O'Connor & Zaleski LLC.
