NAHMA Announces March Meeting Goes Virtual

Alexandria, Va., Dec. 18, 2020 — The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) is moving its annual March Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing conference to an online platform. The multiday event, March 8-11, 2021, will focus on virtual panels concentrating on the top issues facing affordable housing and educational sessions on topics for today's world. The virtual event is being held in place of the typical in-person event held each March in Washington, D.C.

The annual meeting features several educational panels geared explicitly toward the affordable housing industry led by experts in their fields. NAHMA will also virtually honor the winners of the annual AHMA and Industry Awards, and the 2020 Communities of Quality Awardees.

Registration for the meeting will open later in January 2021. At press time, sponsors for the NAHMA March 2021 meeting include Buyers Access, HD Supply Multifamily Solutions, USI Insurance Services, and Yardi Systems.

For more information regarding the meeting, contact Brenda Moser, director of meetings and membership, by calling 703-683-8630, ext. 114, or emailing brenda.moser@nahma.org.

NAHMA is the leading voice for affordable housing management, advocating on behalf of multifamily property managers and owners whose mission is to provide quality affordable housing. NAHMA supports legislative and regulatory policy that promotes the development and preservation of decent and safe affordable housing, is a vital resource for technical education and information and fosters strategic relations between government and industry. NAHMA's membership represents 75% of the affordable housing industry, and includes its most distinguished multifamily owners and management companies.
