Learn From the Experts at the NAHMA March Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 3, 2021 — Hear the latest updates from affordable housing experts at the 2021 National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing virtual winter conference. Register today for one low price. The multiday event, March 8-11, will focus on virtual panels concentrating on the top issues facing affordable housing, including a Communities of Quality Awards panel and a virtual Industry and AHMA Awards ceremony. The virtual event is being held in place of the in-person event held each March in Washington, D.C.

The annual meeting features several educational panels geared explicitly toward the affordable housing industry led by experts in their fields. Among the speakers confirmed to date are Toby Halliday, director of the Office of Asset Management and Portfolio Oversight for the Department of Housing and Urban Development; David A. Vargas, MSA, CPA, deputy assistant secretary, Real Estate Assessment Center; Dan Williams, program manager, NSPIRE; Nancie-Ann Bodell, assistant deputy administrator, Multifamily Housing Programs, Rural Development, Department of Agriculture, and other senior staff from HUD and Rural Development. Panels featuring government officials and other special guests are not open to the media and may not be recorded.

For an at-a-glance preliminary agenda, visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website. The NAHMA meeting is made possible by Platinum sponsors, Buyers Access, HD Supply Multifamily Solutions, USI Insurance Services, and Silver sponsor HAI Group.
