NAHMA Announces October 2021 Meeting Reverts to Virtual

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 14, 2021 — The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) is moving its October 2021 Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing conference to an online platform. Due to the ever-changing situation resulting from the ongoing pandemic, the NAHMA Board of Directors voted on Sept. 13 to cancel the previously announced in-person meeting in favor of transitioning to a virtual gathering instead. When the Board initially decided to go ahead with the in-person meeting in July, Covid-19 infection rates were trending significantly downward. With the emergence of coronavirus variants and now increasing numbers of infections nationally, the Board has decided to hold a virtual meeting out of an abundance of caution for NAHMA members and invited guests.

The multiday event will take place from Oct. 19-22, 2021, and will focus on virtual panels concentrating on the top issues facing affordable housing and educational sessions on topics for today's world. The virtual event is being held in place of the typical in-person event held each October in Washington, D.C. More details on the virtual meeting will be available in the coming days, but save the dates of Tuesday, Oct. 19-Friday, Oct. 22.

NAHMA will convert your registration to the virtual meeting registration for anyone who had previously registered for the October in-person meeting and refund the difference. Anyone who has made a hotel reservation should contact the hotel directly to cancel.

Platinum sponsors, Buyers Access, HD Supply Multifamily Solutions, and USI Insurance Services make the NAHMA meeting possible.
