NAHMA President Invites Members to In-Person March Meeting

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 7, 2022 — National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) President Michael Simmons releases a video inviting members to the NAHMA Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing winter conference at the Fairmont Washington in Washington, D.C. after a two-year pause in in-person meetings.

In the video, Simmons explains what attendees should expect while visiting the nation's capital, including the latest information on the District of Columbia's coronavirus protocols along with other meeting changes to promote a safe and healthy experience for everyone. The video can be found on the Meetings webpage at www.nahma.org.

“While we are all looking forward to finally meeting in person, we are still dealing with an ongoing pandemic. Keeping everyone safe and healthy is of the utmost importance,” Simmons said. “... While we hope to see you in person at the March meeting, we do understand and respect that some will not yet be ready to travel due to the pandemic. We will miss you, and will hope to see you at the NAHMA October meeting.”

The multiday event, March 9-11, will feature panels concentrating on the issues facing affordable housing practitioners and educational topics for navigating today's world led by experts in their fields. The meeting will be mandated to comply with the D.C. government coronavirus requirements for large gatherings. It takes place at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, D.C. Visit the Meetings page on the NAHMA website for more information, including the links for the meeting registration and to reserve a room, the meeting agenda and the latest D.C. government's COVID requirements.

The NAHMA meeting is made possible by Platinum sponsors HD Supply, OMNIA Partners, Multifamily Housing and USI; Gold sponsors Allergy Technologies and ResMan; Silver sponsor HAI Group; and Bronze sponsor Dauby O'Connor & Zaleski LLC.
