Download Your NAHMA October Meeting Materials Before Arriving in DC

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 16, 2023 — Online registration for the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA)'s Biannual Top Issues in Affordable Housing fall conference closes tomorrow, Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 5 p.m. Eastern; on-site registration will be available. NAHMA members and affordable housing industry partners will gather in the District of Columbia from Tuesday, Oct. 24-Thursday, Oct. 26, to learn about the latest issues affecting the affordable housing industry. Register for the conference today.

Before heading to the conference, visit the Meetings webpage and download the conference materials, including the overall meeting agenda, the complete meeting packet including individual session agendas and more, speakers' biographies and a list of new members to welcome to the association. To be more environmentally friendly, NAHMA will have a limited number of complete meeting packets at the event, so please download and print the information for the sessions that interest you the most before arriving at the meeting.

The NAHMA fall conference features educational panels geared explicitly toward the affordable housing industry led by experts in their fields. Invited guests include representatives from the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and Agriculture Rural Development (RD) departments and more. Meeting registration includes admission to the Vanguard Awards luncheon, panel discussions, and committee meetings.

The October meeting occurs at the Fairmont Washington, 2401 M St. NW, Washington, D.C. The NAHMA room block is full. For recommendations for hotels near the Fairmont, please email Brenda Moser.

Platinum sponsor RealPage, gold sponsors Conner Strong & Buckelew and Yardi, silver sponsor Auto-Out Cooktop Fire Protection, and bronze sponsor AppFolio make the NAHMA meeting possible.

Additionally, the 2023 Inspiration Award recipient will be celebrated at the foundation's Inspire Gala, held on Oct. 25, at the Hamilton in Washington, D.C., which requires a separate ticket. The benefit serves as the primary public annual fundraising event for the NAHMA Educational Foundation's scholarship fund. The event will feature live entertainment from The Onyx Band, a sit-down dinner, and a live and silent auction. Sponsorships and tickets for the gala are available. To buy individual tickets or to become a sponsor, please visit www.NAHMAEDU.givesmart.com. To donate items for the silent auction, please contact Stefanie Lee at slee@cahec.com.

For more information regarding the meeting, contact Brenda Moser, vice president of membership services, by calling 703-683-8630, ext. 114, or emailing brenda.moser@nahma.org.

Cancellation Policy: NAHMA will charge a $150 administrative fee for registration cancellations received less than 10 business days but more than three days before the start date of the NAHMA meeting

(unless the cancellation is for standard force majeure reasons). No refunds will be given for cancellations less than three days before the meeting (except for force majeure reasons). In the case of force majeure, updates will be posted on the NAHMA Meetings webpage and in emails to attendees.

NAHMA is the leading voice for the affordable housing management industry, promoting developing, managing and preserving quality affordable multifamily housing.
