

Continuing Education Self-Certification Form Training Attended in 2023 To Return with 2024 Renewal Fee

Continuing education is at the core of the NAHMA[®] certification programs. Constant changes in governmental rules and procedures necessitate a continuing effort by professional managers to remain current in all aspects of property or asset management.

Course events eligible for continuing education credit may be selected from any NAHMA/AHMA subject topic based on your certification and it must possess a published agenda and/or a specific topic area of continuing education in your field. Workshops, seminars, and technical sessions can be used for continuing education if the event meets the above criteria. All courses are credited at the rate of one education unit for each instructional hour.

- Please check the certification(s) in which you have completed the training from 01/01/2023 to 12/31/2023 to receive Continuing Education Units (CEU).
- Blended Compliance Designation (BCD) - 6 Units
- Certified Professional of Occupancy (CPO) - 6 Units
- Fair Housing Compliance (FHC) – 2 Units
- Green Property Management Credential (CGPM) -4 Units
- National Affordable Housing Professional (NAHP) - 10 Units
- National Affordable Housing Executive (NAHP-e) -10 Units
- National Accredited Housing Maintenance Technician (NAHMT) -4 Units
- National Accredited Housing Maintenance Supervisor (NAHMS) -4 Units

Certificate holders must self-certify each year when renewing their certificates and do not need to send in documentation of continuing education.

Please complete the profile below and return with your 2024 annual renewal fee. NAHMA will hold a random audit of continuing education units three times a year to confirm that you have completed the units required for your certification(s) checked above.
