E-NAHMA Analysis 2005-0321: HUD FY 2005 SuperNOFA

HUD has released the FY 2005 SuperNOFA for its discretionary programs. For detailed information about the notice, please see HUD's "Grants Available" webpage: <http://www.hud.gov/offices/adm/grants/fundsavail.cfm#grants>.

This year, HUD is requiring that NOFA applications be submitted electronically through www.grants.gov. Only the Continuum of Care NOFA is using the paper application process. Per HUD, "All applications must be submitted and received by Grants.gov no later than 11:59:59 P.M. Eastern Time on the application submission date."

Programs of interest to NAHMA members, the approximate funding available and deadline for submitting the applications are noted below.
